ACCOUNT OPENING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. TERMS / SCOPE

The information contained here in together with any further instructions and conditions that may be prescribed by the Society from time to time shall constitute the terms of the agreement between the customer and CABS. When this application form has been signed, it will be deemed to have been accepted as binding on the customer and the CABS representative office or affiliate where the account is held.

These conditions apply to each account opened under the Account Opening Form or in any other acceptable manner.

2. THE ACCOUNT

The Customer shall assume full responsibility for the genuineness, correctness and validity of all endorsements appearing on all cheques, orders, bills, notes, negotiable instruments, receipts or other instructions deposited into the account

The Society will not be responsible for any loss of funds deposited with it arising from any future Government order, law, levy, tax, embargo, moratorium, exchange restriction or any other cause beyond its control. Your account shall be debited for any service charge that is set by the Society from time to time.

All notices or letters will be sent to the physical, postal or electronic address supplied by you and will be considered duly delivered and received at that time it is delivered or seven days after posting.

The Society will not be liable for funds handed over to members of its staff other than the Tellers in the Society's premises with the appropriate deposit slip. Any anomaly in the entries on your Bank statements must be brought to the attention of the Society within 30 days of the date thereof and you agree that the failure to give such notice absolves the Society from all liabilities arising thereof.

3. DISCLOSURE

The applicant agrees and authorises the Society or the approved credit reference bureau to: a) make enquiries from any bank, financial institution or approved credit reference bureau in Zimbabwe to confirm any information provided by the applicant. b) Seek information from any bank, financial institution or approved credit reference bureau when assessing the customer at any time during the existence of the applicant's account. c) Disclose to financial clearing bureau, an approved credit reference bureau, information relating to the applicant's account maintained at the Society.

4. INSTRUCTIONS

CABS may rely on the authority of each person designated (in a form acceptable to CABS) by the Customer to send instructions or do any other thing until CABS has received written notice or other notice acceptable to it of any change from a duly authorized person and CABS has had a reasonable time to act (after which time it may rely on the change). Each of the Customer and CABS will comply with certain agreed security procedures designed to verify the origination of instructions between them such as enquiries, advices and instructions.

CABS is not obliged to do any thing other than what is contained in the procedures to establish the authority or identity of the person sending an instruction. CABS is not responsible for errors or omissions made by the Customer of the duplication of any instruction by the Customer and may act on any instruction by reference to an account number only, even if an account name is provided. CABS may act on an instruction if it reasonably believes it contains sufficient information.

CABS may decide not to act on an instruction where it reasonably doubts its contents, authorization, origination or compliance with the procedures and will promptly notify the Customer (by telephone if appropriate) of its decision.

If the Customer informs CABS that it wishes to recall, cancel or amend an instruction, CABS will use its reasonable efforts to comply.

If CABS acts on my instruction sent by any means requiring manual intervention (such as telephone, telex, electronic mail or disks sent by messenger) then, if CABS complies with the procedures, the Customer will be responsible for any loss CABS may incur in connection with that instruction.

5. INTEREST FEES AND OTHER CHARGES

You will be liable for the payment of interest charges at the rate fixed by CABS from time to time for any outstanding debit on your account. Your account may also be debited for the Society's usual banking charges, interest, commission etc. Unless otherwise agreed, CABS may modify at any time the rate of interest, fees, or other amounts applicable to any account or service (but subject to any legal requirement as to notice).

The Society may exercise its general lien or any similar right it is entitled to including the right to combine and consolidate all or any of the Customer's accounts with the Society, and the right to set off or transfer any sum or sums standing to the credit of any one or more of such accounts against liabilities in any other account.

6. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither the Customer nor CABS will be responsible for any failure to perform any of its obligations with the respect to any account if such performance would result in it being in breach of any law, regulation or other requirement of any government or other authority in accordance with which it is required to act or if its performance is prevented, hindered or delayed by a Force Majeure Event; in such case its obligations will be suspended, for so long as the force Majeure Event continues (and, in the case of CABS, no other representative office or affiliate shall become liable). "Force Majeure Event" means any event due to any cause beyond the reasonable control of the relevant party, such as restrictions on convertibility or transferability, requisition, involuntary transfers, unavailability of any system, sabotage, fire, flood, explosion, acts of God, civil commotion, strikes or industrial action of any kind, riots, insurrection, war or acts of government.

7. SHARING INFORMATION

CABS will treat information relating to the Customer as confidential, but the Customer consents to the transfer and disclosure by CABS of any information relating to the Customer to and between the representative offices, affiliates and agents of CABS and third parties selected by any of them, whenever situated, for confidential use (including in connection with the provision of any service and for data processing, statistical and risk analysis purposes). CABS and any representative office, affiliate, agent or third party may transfer and disclose any such information as required by any law, court, regulator or legal process.

8. ELECTRONIC MONITORING OR RECORDING

The Customer and CABS consent to telephone or electronic monitoring or recording for security and quality of service purposes and agree that either may produce telephonic recording, computer records or CCTV footage as evidence in any proceedings brought in connection with these conditions.

9. CHANGE OF MANDATE

The customer must notify the Society immediately of any change in the address, directors, committee members, trustees, designated members, secretaries etc. Any modification of change in authorized signatories must be signed in accordance with the existing mandate and accompanied by a resolution to that effect.

10. TERMINATION

Either party may terminate this agreement at any time (but subject to any legal requirements as to notice) by notifying the other in writing.

On closure of an account, the termination becomes effective after any cheque drawn on the account or outstanding on it have been paid; all debit cards and internet banking tokens issued to you have been sent back to the Society; and all information and equipments supplied by CABS have been returned to the Society.

Where the Society is terminating the agreement and your account is overdrawn, you must pay all sums outstanding on the account otherwise the Society may take appropriate legal action for recovery.

11. JURISDICTION

In relation to any account, these conditions are governed by the laws of Zimbabwe.

12. DISCLAIMER CLAUSE

The Society disclaims liability for any funds/ assets deposited by you which are subsequently found to have derived from illegal source or activities. You confirm that the funds / assets deposited are not derived from any illegal source or activities.

DECLARATION

I/We certify that all information given on this application and in support thereof is true and correct, and I/ We understand that should the information prove to be incorrect the Society reserves the right to decline the application or discontinue the relationship. I/ we undertake to provide all documents requested by the Society and to update all records in the event of change of any personal details. I/ We acknowledge that my attention has been drawn to the terms and conditions contained herein and undertake to abide by these in the Society's right to summarily close the account if it is not conducted satisfactorily.

Subject to the provisions of the Building Society's Act, the Rules of the Society pursuant to this application. Your attention is drawn to the provisions of section 19,20 and 21 of the Building Society's Act. Copies of the Rules of the Society are available on request.

INTERNET BANKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Acceptance

By appending your signature to this application form, it shall be deemed that you have accepted the Internet Banking Terms and Conditions below, and in the event of omitting to sign, the customer shall be deemed to have accepted the Terms and Conditions upon receipt of internet banking credentials.

2. Tokens Usage

Every token issued shall remain the property of CABS and shall be returned to CABS immediately after cancellation of Internet Banking Services. The customer shall indemnify and keep CABS indemnified against any losses arising from the misuse of the token by the internet banking customer or by any third party who was given the token by the Internet Banking Customer. Any disclosure of Internet Banking PIN is prohibited and if customer so violates this, it shall be deemed to have been voluntarily made or made with the consent of the Internet Banking User.

3. Losses

- CABS shall not be held liable for any losses or damage, direct or indirect, actual or contingent, arising from the failure or malfunction of any internet banking tokens, or internet connectivity. It shall be the sole responsibility of the Internet Banking Customer to ensure that his / her computer device is secure and internet browser is optimal for such services, and the customer hereby undertakes to indemnify and keep CABS indemnified against any loss or claim arising from any delays in the processing of transfers caused by circumstances which are beyond CABS'S control.
- You are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of your internet instructions and ensure that they will achieve your intended purpose. CABS shall not be liable for any loss or delays arising from any inaccurate or incomplete instructions from the customer.

4. Cancellation of Internet Banking Facility

You are obliged to advise CABS in writing if you no longer wish to use the CABS Internet Banking facility. Notification (if oral to be followed up immediately with written notification) should be sent to CABS when the Internet Banking Customer suspects that his / her credentials have been compromised. Only until receipt of the notification all internet transactions shall be deemed to have been made.

5. Cancellation of Internet instruction(s)

- The customer's instruction involving a payment via CABS Internet Banking cannot be cancelled except for forward dated transfer only, as these can be canceled before the forward date arrives.
- If you request to cancel any instruction, CABS will make all reasonable efforts to comply with your request. However, CABS shall not be liable for any failure to cancel customer instruction should there be reasons to do so, or should the request be received under circumstances that render CABS unable to comply with the request.

6. Suspension or Termination of Internet Service

In order to protect CABS and the customer, CABS shall be entitled to immediately suspend or withdraw all or some of the internet services, if the service is being used contrary to the Terms and Conditions of this agreement and also if CABS has reasonable grounds to believe that the internet service is being used negligently or fraudulently.

7. Internet Service Hardware maintenance and security

- It is customer's responsibility to set up, maintain and regularly review security arrangements concerning access to, and use of, the internet service, and information stored on the device you are using to access CABS internet banking service.
- The customer acknowledges that information transmitted through the internet or any other communication system which includes wireless communication is susceptible to unlawful access, distortion and monitoring and that the customer uses the internet banking at their own risk.

8. Regulatory compliance with Anti-Money Laundering

I/ We confirm that all the funds in my accounts and funds to be transferred to and from my/our accounts would be funds realised from genuine transactions or otherwise gained as a result of legitimate underlying cause and thus, would be in compliance with Money Laundering and Proceeds of Crime Act, 2013

9. DECLARATION

I/ We certify that all information given on this application form and in support thereof is true and correct, and I / We understand that should the information prove to be incorrect, CABS reserves the right to decline the application or discontinue the service and the relationship. I/We undertake to provide all the documents requested by CABS and to update all records in the event of changes to any of my/our personal details. I/We acknowledge that my/our attention has been drawn to the Terms and Conditions above and undertake to abide by these and CABS' right to summarily cancel the internet services if it is not conducted in terms of the agreed terms and conditions.

Should at the date of this Application and subsequent approval, I am resident outside Zimbabwe, I/We instruct and authorise CABS to courier my internet banking token(s) relating to my/our access to the Internet Banking Services to my address as per CABS' records and I agree that the risk and costs of non-receipt shall be fully borne by me. I/We confirm and agree that CABS shall not be held responsible in any way for any losses that may be suffered by me as a result of such non receipt of the token.

SMS / EMAIL ALERTS TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

1. Definitions: In these Terms and Conditions, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
